"101 Writing Prompts" is a journal to write in. Whether you are a creative writer looking for inspiration, or an over worked and stressed out mom, the creative writing prompts in this journal can help. Simply open this journal to any page, find a question or writing prompt that matches your mood, and start writing. The writing prompts in this book follow the "scenario and question" and "what if" format. For example, a typical writing prompt may state: "A bully is harassing your child in the park. What do you say to stop it?" In another example: "You find an unused baby crib in a yard sale. What do you think?" Additionally, a "what if" question may ask: "What if the government installed surveillance cameras in every home? How would this impact your behavior and conversations?" The basic concept of this style of writing prompt is to create an image in your mind, and then pop a question that requires you to evaluate your morals, personal courage, resolve, aversion to risk, or assertiveness relevant to the scenario. In the process, you learn something about yourself, while discovering a painless way to actively engage in journal writing. Start your journal of self-exploration and discovery today.
