NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER • Misconceptions, misunderstandings, and flawed facts finally get the heave-ho in this humorous, downright humiliating book of reeducation based on the phenomenal British bestseller. Challenging what most of us assume to be verifiable truths in areas like history, literature, science, nature, and more, The Book of General Ignorance is a witty "gotcha" compendium of how little we actually know about anything. It'll have you scratching your head wondering why we even bother to go to school. Think Magellan was the first man to circumnavigate the globe, baseball was invented in America, Henry VIII had six wives, Mount Everest is the tallest mountain? Wrong, wrong, wrong, and wrong again. You'll be surprised at how much you don't know! Check out The Book of General Ignorance for more fun entries and complete answers to the following: How long can a chicken live without its head? About two years. What do chameleons do? They don't change color to match the background. Never have; never will. Complete myth. Utter fabrication. Total Lie. They change color as a result of different emotional states. How many legs does a centipede have? Not a hundred. How many toes has a two-toed sloth? It's either six or eight. Who was the first American president? Peyton Randolph. What were George Washington's false teeth made from? Mostly hippopotamus. What was James Bond's favorite drink? Not the vodka martini.

This book makes a perfect gift for adults and children with an interest in geography. Recommend age 12+ Question topics within The Ultimate Geography Quiz include, but not limited to: Country and continent names, size, borders and locations respective to each other. Mountain, mountain heights, mountain range and volcano names and their locations. Ocean, seas, marginal seas, and their locations respective to each other City, building, landmark and capital city names and location. Deserts, forests, jungles, glaciers! Country size, flags, language currency, religion, climate and population. Flag, flag colors, other flag attributes. Physical Geography jargon. World record facts regarding geography. Challenging multiple choice questions: We have seen several quiz books that have a poor selection of multiple choice questions, such as example below... What is the highest mountain in Turkey? A Mt. Whitney B Mt. Everest C Mt. Ararat D Mt. Cook Whilst this question is somewhat tricky in itself, the answers given allow most geographers to eliminate the 3 wrong answers quickly to come up with answer C. Instead of this approach, we have kept the quiz more like shown below to make this strategy of quizzing harder for the challenger... What is the highest mountain in Turkey? A Mt. Elbrus B Mt. Davamond C Mt. Ararat D Mt. Bazarduzu Although it may be easy for some seasoned geographers, this question, by the choices given is harder for the most part, and will hopefully trigger more conversation/thought before answering. Rather than basic sets of questions, The Book Lover's Quiz Book mirrors the format of Gary's live quizzes, at the Betsey Trotwood in London and elsewhere. So, there are lots of multiple-choice questions, some amusing answers, clever red herrings, little-known facts about authors and some of the much-loved Say What You See picture round. Also, there are fixed and variable rounds - fixed ones include 'Blankety Books' (one word missing from the title - always with a theme), 'Literary Links and lists' (what connects/next in the list etc.) and '2 of a Kind' (name the character and the author that share the same initials). The changeable rounds keep the quizzes fresh and include 'What the Dickens?' (real or made-up Dickens names), 'RomeNo or JuliYess' (real or made-up Shakespearian insults) and 'Book Bingo!' (identify the correct number). There are also more standard rounds such as 'First Lines', 'Working Titles' and 'Banned Books'. The aim of all Gary's quizzes, and this book, is that people should have fun and be able to guess (if they don't know) as much as possible.

This edited collection brings to the forefront attempts to connect critical pedagogy and ELT (English Language Teaching) in different parts of the world. The authors in this collection write from their own experiences, giving the chapters nuanced understanding of the everyday struggles that teachers, teacher educators and researchers face within different contexts. Throughout the book, contributors connect micro-contexts (classrooms) with macro-contexts (world migration, politics and social issues) to demonstrate the impact and influences of pedagogy. In problematizing ELT and focusing on so-called ' peripheral ' countries where educators have created their own critical pedagogies to respond to their own local realities, the contributors construct ELT in a way that goes beyond the typical ESL/EFL distinction. This unique edited collection will appeal to teacher educators, in-service teachers working in the field as well as students and scholars of English language teaching, second language acquisition and language education policy.

About the Author-----I am a former teacher and an experienced writer and presenter of Pub Quizzes. Over the years, my quizzes have evolved into a tried and tested winning formula. I have decided to share this formula with others, creating quality materials so you can focus on delivering an outstanding quiz.-----This book contains 10 complete weekly quizzes with literally EVERYTHING required, including Picture Rounds, Questions, Music Rounds and Survey Said Games. It is formatted in close to A4 size to allow photocopying or scanning, to distribute copies to your quizzers where required. Perfect for the budding or experienced Quizmasters alike. Not just a list of questions and answers, the skill of question selection and difficulty level has all been done for you.-----

-----Each quiz contains a picture round, 30 questions of increasing difficulty, an additional tie-breaker, if required, a bonus option to link to 10 music round questions on Spotify and a 'Family Fortunes' type Survey Said sheet for use during the break of your quiz. I've even provided the blank answer sheet for your quizzers to write on!! hope my knowledge and expertise can revitalise your quizzes, whether they are for a one off event, or regular use. If you are presenting a quiz I understand how meticulously researched, well phrased questions and answers can help the cause. The answers to the questions are purposely included directly below the corresponding question, as this makes things much easier when reading out the answers to your quiz. A typical example of the quiz structure contained in this book is below.-----

-----Picture Round: 10-12 questions in each, on most occasions the answers to these should be written on the blank 50 question answer sheet. Teams can compete this to get them settled as they arrive.-----

-----Questions 10 - 20: Easier questions designed to give your teams some confidence and even raise some laughs. Questions 21 - 30: Medium difficulty questions, some of these may include a multiple choice element.-----

-----Questions 31 - 40: Music Round: I have added a direct link to my Spotify playlist with 10 songs for each music round and within your answer sheet, the name of the artist and song (I offer half a point for the artist and half a point for the name of the song.)-----

-----Questions 41 - 45: Harder questions which teams will find much more challenging.-----

-----Questions 46 - 50: 'The Wipeout Round' or 'Double or Quits'. It is suggested that in this section, you inform teams that each question is worth 2 points, however if one question is answered incorrectly the team 'wipes-out' and scores no points for the round, questions can however be missed out with no penalty (just receiving no points for that particular question.)-----

-----'Our Survey Said': A little like 'Family Fortunes' it's always a good idea to give these out if you have a break to keep customers busy. Alternatively you can use them as part of your quiz if your wish. We asked 100 people in the UK to name something in 5 different categories. For each of these categories, can you give the 5 most popular answers they came up with?
