In an area where corn was cultivated, nearby a big building which was used to store the corn, the animals were gathering to enjoy the morning sunlight. There were dozens of goats, cows, ducks, geese, not forgetting the chickens. Those animals were kept in their own pens near the big storehouse. This morning the farmhands had let the farm animals roam around freely, while they were busy organising the harvesting of the corn. Everything seemed peaceful. Until night falls ... A thrilling night.

I Will Survive is the story of Gloria Gaynor, America's "Queen of Disco." It is the story of riches and fame, despair, and finally salvation. Her meteoric rise to stardom in the mid-1970s was nothing short of phenomenal, and hits poured forth that pushed her to the top of the charts, including "Honey Bee," "I Got You Under My Skin," "Never Can Say Goodbye," and the song that has immortalized her, "I Will Survive," which became a #1 international gold seller. With that song, Gloria heralded the international rise of disco that became synonymous with a way of life in the fast lane - the sweaty bodies at Studio 54, the lines of cocaine, the indescribable feeling that you could always be at the top of your game and never come down. But down she came after her early stardom, and problems followed in the wake, including the death of her mother, whose love had anchored the young singer, as well as constant battles with weight, drugs, and alcohol. While her fans always imagined her to be rich, her personal finances collapsed due to poor management; and while many envied her, she felt completely empty inside. In the early 1980s, sustained by her marriage to music publisher Linwood Simon, Gloria took three years off and reflected upon her life. She visited churches and revisited her mother's old Bible. Discovering the world of gospel, she made a commitment to Christ that sustains her to this day.

"Alif had never set foot outside of West Sumatra. He passed his childhood days searching for fallen durian fruit in the jungle, playing soccer on rice paddies, and swimming in the blue waters of Lake Maninjau. His mother wants him to attend an Islamic boarding school, a pesantren, while he dreams of public high school. Halfheartedly, he follows his mother's wishes. He finds himself on a grueling three-day bus ride from Sumatra to Madani Pesantren (MP) in a remote village on Java. On his first day at MP, Alif is captivated by the powerful phrase man jadda wajada. He who gives his all will surely succeed. United by punishment, he quickly becomes friends with five boys from across the archipelago, and together they become known as the Fellowship of the Manara. Beneath the mosque's minaret, the boys gaze at the clouds on the horizon, seeing in them their individual dreams of far-away lands, like America and Europe. Where would these dreams take them? They didn't know. What they did know was: never underestimate dreams, no matter how high they may be. God truly is The Listener. The Land of Five Towers is the first book in a trilogy written by A. Fuadi—a former TEMPO & VOA reporter, photography buff, and a social entrepreneur. He went to George Washington University and Royal Holloway, University of London for his masters. A portion of the royalties from the trilogy are intended to build Komunitas Menara, a volunteer-based social organization which aims to provide free schools, libraries, clinics and soup kitchens for the less fortunate. Schooldays at St Clare's are never dull for twins Pat and Isabel O'Sullivan in Enid Blyton's much-loved boarding school series. In book eight, the girls are in the fifth form, about to reach the sixth, but they are not too old for tricks and escapades, jokes and excitement. Especially amusing is French girl Antoinette who, like her sister Claudine, doesn't always understand the ways of St. Clare's. Expect more mischief at St Clare's! Between 1941 and 1946, Enid Blyton wrote six novels set at St Clare's. This edition features the original text and is unillustrated.

As seen on The Today Show! One of the best summer romance picks! One of Publishers Weekly Best Romance Books of 2019! A modern-day Muslim Pride and Prejudice for a new generation of love. Ayesha Shamsi has a lot going on. Her dreams of being a poet have been set aside for a teaching job so she can pay off her debts to her wealthy uncle. She lives with her boisterous Muslim family and is always being reminded that her flighty younger cousin, Hafsa, is close to rejecting her one hundredth marriage proposal. Though Ayesha is lonely, she doesn't want an arranged marriage. Then she meets Khalid, who is just as smart and handsome as he is conservative and judgmental. She is irritatingly attracted to someone who looks down on her choices and who dresses like he belongs in the seventh century. When a surprise engagement is announced between Khalid and Hafsa, Ayesha is torn between how she feels about the straightforward Khalid and the unsettling new gossip she hears about his family. Looking into the rumors, she finds she has to deal with not only what she discovers about Khalid, but also the truth

she realizes about herself.

She's a free-spirited dreamer. He's a brilliant painter. But now their shared passion for art has turned into something deeper... For as long as she can remember, Kugy has loved to write. Whimsical stories are her passion, along with letters full of secret longings that she folds into paper boats and sets out to sea. Now that she's older, she dreams of following her heart and becoming a true teller of tales, but she decides to get a "real job" instead and forget all about Keenan, the guy who makes her feel as if she's living in one of her own fairy tales. Sensitive and introverted, Keenan is an aspiring artist, but he feels pressured to pursue a more practical path. He's drawn to Kugy from first sight: she's unconventional, and the light radiating from her eyes and the warmth of her presence pull him in. They seem like a perfect match--both on and off the page--but revealing their secret feelings means risking their friendship and betraying the people they love most. Can they find the courage to admit their love for each other and chase their long-held dreams?

If the study of politics is to be rewarding both intellectually and practically it must. by definition. concern itself with the great issues which arise in the real world and with the fundamental arguments which occur about their nature and the possible solutions to them. Abstract political philosophy which is not informed by the experience of practice will become sterile. A study of constitutions and the machinery of government can become dry-as-dust and hence boring unless the underlying principles are analysed and grasped. But theories of political change divorced from an understanding of constitutions and institutions will degenerate into mere phrase-mongering. Attempts to apply the techniques of the natural sciences to politics will lead to model building for its own sake and thence to arid and barren intellectualism unless it is understood that it is impossible to quantify the intangible. Indeed. anyone-sided approach to politics and consequent failure to grasp the essential wholeness of the subject is bound to end in disaster. The study of politics is a study of changing human relationships in dynamic societies. Thus it involves. since the present and hence the future are shaped in part by the past. an appreciation of history.

Botchan is a modern young man from the Tokyo metropolis, sent to the ultra-traditional Matsuyama district as a Maths teacher after his the death of his parents. Cynical, rebellious and immature, Botchan finds himself facing several tests, from the pupils - prone to playing tricks on their new, naïve teacher; the staff - vain, immoral, and in danger of becoming a bad influence on Botchan; and from his own as-yet-unformed nature, as he finds his place in the world. One of the most popular novels in Japan where it is considered a classic of adolescence, as seminal as The Catcher in the Rye, Botchan is as funny, poignant and memorable as it was when first published, over 100 years ago. In J. Cohn's introduction to his colourful translation, he discusses Botchan's success, the book's clash between Western intellectualism and traditional Japanese values, and the importance of names and nicknames in the novel.

JENGI Alien Ebooks

Published in Indonesia in 2005, The Rainbow Troops, Andrea Hirata's closely autobiographical debut novel, sold more than five million copies, shattering records. Now it promises to captivate audiences around the globe. Ikal is a student at the poorest village school on the Indonesian island of Belitung, where graduating from sixth grade is considered a remarkable achievement. His school is under constant threat of closure. In fact, Ikal and his friends—a group nicknamed the Rainbow Troops—face threats from every angle: skeptical government officials, greedy corporations hardly distinguishable from the colonialism they've replaced, deepening poverty and crumbling infrastructure, and their own low self-confidence. But the students also have hope, which comes in the form of two extraordinary teachers, and Ikal's education in and out of the classroom is an uplifting one. We root for him and his friends as they defy the island's powerful tin mine officials. We meet his first love, the unseen girl who sells chalk from behind a shop screen, whose pretty hands capture Ikal's heart. We cheer for Lintang, the class's barefoot math genius, as he bests the students of the mining corporation's school in an academic challenge. Above all, we gain an intimate acquaintance with the customs and people of the world's largest Muslim society. This is classic storytelling in the spirit of Khaled Hosseini's The Kite Runner: an engrossing depiction of a milieu we have never encountered before, bursting with charm and verve.

“ Kitalah yang paling tahu seperti apa kita, sepanjang kita jujur terhadap diri sendiri. Sepanjang kita terbuka dengan pendapat orang lain, mau mendengarkan masukan dan punya sedikit selera humor, menertawakan diri sendiri. Dengan itu semua kita bisa memperbaiki perangai. ” kutipan dari buku berjudul Si Anak Pintar adalah salah satu fiksi sastra jenis novel Karya Tere Liye. Tere Liye sendiri merupakan nama pena penulis novel Indonesia. Tere Liye lahir di Lahat, Indonesia, 21 Mei 1979 dengan nama Darwis. Beberapa karya Tere Liye yang diangkat ke layar lebar yaitu Hafalan Shalat Delisa dan Moga Bunda Disayang Allah. Meski berhasil dalam dunia literasi Indonesia, kegiatan menulis hanya sekedar hobi karena sehari-hari ia masih bekerja di kantor sebagai seorang akuntan, ia merupakan anak dari seorang petani biasa yang tumbuh dewasa di pedalaman Sumatera. Kehidupan masa kecil yang dilalui Tere Liye penuh dengan kesederhanaan yang membuatnya tetap sederhana hingga kini. Sosok Tere Liye terlihat tidak banyak gaya dan tetap rendah hati dalam menjalani kehidupannya. Buku ini tentang Pukat, si anak paling pintar dalam keluarga. Masa kecilnya dipenuhi petualangan seru dan kejadian kocak serta jangan lupa pertengkaran dengan kakak dan adik-adiknya. Tapi apakah dia mampu menjawab teka-teki hebat itu, apakah harta karun paling berharga di kampung mereka? Dari puluhan buku Tere Liye, serial buku ini adalah mahkotanya. Buku ini merupakan buku ketiga dari serial anak nusantara, recover dari buku berjudul Pukat – serial anak-anak Mamak. Secara cover, yang sekarang lebih fresh walaupun secara cerita tetap sama. Tapi uniknya, meskipun saya membaca cerita yang sama, namun dengan judul berbeda, tidak sedikit pun menyisakan kebosanan saat membaca buku ini. Tetap seru dan membuat terharu. Saya rasa, buku ini bisa dinikmati oleh semua umur: anak-anak, remaja, dewasa juga orang tua. Buku ini juga sangat penting dibaca anak-anak jaman sekarang, kita diajak bernostalgia di jaman tahun 1970-1980. Dimana kehidupan masih sangat sederhana namun membahagiakan, meskipun teknologi belum semaju sekarang. Buat anak-anak jaman sekarang, lewat serial Anak Nusantara akan tahu tentang bagaimana indahnya anak-anak kala itu. Pukat, anak kedua dari Mamak dan Bapak. Kakaknya Amelia dan Burlian, adiknya Eliana. Buku yang terdiri dari 25 bab ini, seakan mengajak saya berpetualang bersama Pukat dengan segala keunikan, kepintaran hingga kenakalan khas anak-anak, yang hidup di kampung dan saat itu belum masuk listrik, dimana saat malam masih mengandalkan penerangan dari petromak dan lampu canting. Cerita diawali dengan perjalanan Pukat bersama Bapak dan Burlian naik Kereta Api ke kota. Menyibak misteri terowongan, hingga pengalaman pertama naik kereta tersebut justru saat masuk terowongan mereka mengalami perampokan yang dilakukan secara berkelompok. Dalam kegelapan semua penumpang dalam kereta mengalami ketakutan, kecemasan dan prasangka siapa dalang perampokan tersebut. Bayangkan saja, dalam kegelapan bagaimana kita bisa mengenali wajah perampok? Namun, berkat kepintaran Pukat, masalah perampokan dalam kereta pun terpecahkan!
