Read this if you want to sell more books, make more money as an author, or rank higher in your category. My name is Nick Vulich. The first thing you should know about me is I'm not a writer, and I'm not an expert on self-publishing either. I never worked in the industry, and I don't have any experience working for the big publishers. In fact, the only thing I consider myself an expert in is how to sell on eBay, Amazon, and Fiverr... So why should you listen to me? Like most indie authors, I came into publishing through the back door. I had a story to tell, and one day I just sat down and let it all come out. What I wrote wasn't pretty, or polished...but, it helped a lot of people sell more stuff on eBay. What I couldn't say with fancy prose, I made up for with enthusiasm. Because of that, my books sold. I'm not going to lie to you. It wasn't easy. I read just about every book available on self-publishing. I studied up on KDP Free days, Countdown Deals, price pulsing...

I've been selling on line for over five years now, and I gotta tell you – It's one of the greatest gigs I've ever had. I started my career selling on this little website you might have heard about – eBay. In less than six months I was pulling down over two grand a month. From there I moved on to Amazon and in less than three months, I doubled my income. Two years ago I heard about this website called Fiverr where people were selling services starting at only five bucks, and I knew I had to take a shot at this crazy game. I started out designing covers for Kindle books, and in less than six months I cranked out over 1700 covers for just over $25,000 with extras. How crazy is that! With all of that said, probably the best money maker I've discovered to date is writing Kindle books. There are guys cranking out a book a week and pulling down some serious cash. Me! I've written over a dozen books using several pen names. Some of them consistently pull down $300 to $500 a month. Some of them are turkeys, and I'm lucky to pull in ten bucks a month on them, but it all adds up. What I'm trying to say here is: I make some really good cash working on line, and you can too. Read my book. Follow the directions, and you can make some serious cash.

Women today want to have it all; they not only want to have their own lives outside of the home and the workplace, but they want a healthy, stable relationship, to excel in their careers, and some also want to become mothers. This change in our cultural outlook, and the expansion of options for women, has led to record numbers of women deciding not to have children at all, or to wait until later in life to get married or to start trying to conceive a child. For those who decide that they want to wait, the options for birth control are many and varied, and while there is certainly nothing wrong with waiting to have children, it can be more difficult for women to conceive the longer that you wait. With more women waiting to conceive, there is a greater need for women to understand their options and for doctors to provide solutions to the problems that these women are facing. That said, if you are considering waiting to have children, or are getting ready to start trying, you'll want to get a good idea of how your body and its cycles work, how you can use your body's natural cycle to help you prevent pregnancy, and also how you can use your body's cycle to your advantage when trying to conceive. So, let's get started!

The Ethanol Papers is a rough-and-tumble, no holds-barred crystallization of the ethanol vs. gasoline conflict. Written in plain jargon, non-scientists, non-academics, and politicians alike will find it compelling. Yet this is no "Idiots Guide to Biofuels" or "Alt Fuels for Dummies." Rather, The Ethanol Papers is the most in-depth and complete explanation of the ethanol-oil problem now available, targeted for smart people who demand facts.
