Cut out the grey areas Fold the stencil around your pumpkin Mark out the areas for carving with a pen – this is something your little ones can be in charge of Remove the stencil and carve your pumpkin – IMPORTANT: We recommend that a grown-up looks after any knife work, obviously!

Choose the size that you like and cut out the pattern along its outline. Trace the pumpkin pattern at least ten times on orange construction paper. Cut out the pumpkin shapes. Fold each pumpkin shape in the middle. Without unfolding a pumpkin shape, apply glue on one of its outer faces. We recommend using glue stick instead of white glue or any liquid-type glue to prevent the paper from wrinkling or warping.
