Book of the Month (founded 1926) is a United States subscription-based e-commerce service that offers a selection of five new hardcover books each month to its members. Books are selected and endorsed by a panel of judges, and members choose which book they would like to receive, similar to how the club originally operated when it began in 1926.

Paperback book club editions are often a little larger than the trade paperbacks. The paper used for the pages is often thinner and of lesser quality than trade editions. The boards (the book cover) may be bound with thick paper instead of cloth. The dust jacket may be made of thinner or uncoated paper.
