The Complete Book of Bible Trivia Zonderkidz

It has been more than three years since Arland asked me to look over his original manuscript of the 777 Bible Questions and Answers. Little did I realize that I was entering into a journey in faith that would turn me into a student of the Bible. In all honesty this has been an enjoyable and rewarding enterprise. I know that through this book my life has now been blessed with the message of God's love, truth and direction. There are events in this book that stir the soul and answer many questions that I have often been unsure of. One of those events is the expulsion of Adam and Eve from the Garden of Eden. God placed an angel at the east gate of Eden's entrance. Then He placed flaming swords, flashing back and forth; a suggestion that prevented mankind from ever re-entering the garden. Arland explained the Old Testament conception of the afterlife as a story of darkness and gloom. In reference to the New Testament, Arland provides an explanation of God's making known the East Gate's presence and there afterwards He gave mankind a choice as to whether or not to dwell in the Garden of Eden (His Kingdom). Ultimately, this book has been a Godsend to me, and it answers many of the questions that I so needed to know in strengthening my every-day walk in faith. I will forever be indebted to Arland for sharing this well informed biblical research endeavor with me. It gives me an everlasting substantiation of my inherent beliefs. In reading Arland's book the most illustrative information to me, an historian, was how he gave so many examples of the martyrdom of the Apostles, the early church fathers and the European faith believers who were unselfishly willing to lay down their lives in order to perpetuate the belief of what God had done through His son, Jesus Christ. Hiram A. Goff, Editor

Have you ever had a burning question that seemed off limits or inappropriate to ask about Christianity, the Bible, or Jesus? You Can't Ask That! gathers 50 of the most provocative, challenging, or otherwise taboo questions that many of us have wondered about but few have actually asked. Edited by Christian Piatt, who once had a bible thrown at his head for asking too many questions during a Sunday school class, this collection considers nothing off limits and takes the hard questions seriously. Responses from theology professors, pastors, lay leaders, and other progressive Christians range from the personal to the profound and from sarcastic to deeply touching. By offering multiple perspectives to those banned questions, readers can craft their own answers. Better yet, they'll understand that questioning faith is not taboo; it's the foundation of a strong and growing faith. End Times Christian Art Gifts Incorporated

Every believer has questions about God, the Bible, Jesus, and the purpose and meaning of life. The vexing problem is that so few believers are able to answer even the most basic ones. Without answers, doubt creeps in and the future of the church is in jeopardy. With insight and precision, Geisler and Jimenez address one hundred penetrating questions that the culture asks and Christians must be prepared to answer, including both controversial questions raging in the public sphere and personal questions about family issues, the purpose and meaning of life, and the future of the world. Christians from every walk of life, especially young believers, youth workers, and parents, will treasure this comprehensive resource. Foreword by Josh and Sean McDowell.
