The mission of the International Journal of Educational Reform (IJER) is to keep readers up-to-date with worldwide developments in education reform by providing scholarly information and practical analysis from recognized international authorities. As the only peer-reviewed scholarly publication that combines authors' voices without regard for the political affiliations perspectives, or research methodologies, IJER provides readers with a balanced view of all sides of the political and educational mainstream. To this end, IJER includes, but is not limited to, inquiry based and opinion pieces on developments in such areas as policy, administration, curriculum, instruction, law, and research. IJER should thus be of interest to professional educators with decision-making roles and policymakers at all levels turn since it provides a broad-based conversation between and among policymakers, practitioners, and academicians about reform goals, objectives, and methods for success throughout the world. Readers can call on IJER to learn from an international group of reform implementers by discovering what they can do that has actually worked. IJER can also help readers to understand the pitfalls of current reforms in order to avoid making similar mistakes. Finally, it is the mission of IJER to help readers to learn about key issues in school reform from movers and shakers who help to study and shape the power base directing educational reform in the U.S. and the world.

How to Reach the 9.0 is a series created by the tutors of IELTS Medical in order to complement our IELTS Academic classes for medical professionals. Reading is the second part of the IELTS exam. It takes 1 hour and consists of three or sometimes four reading passages of increasing difficulty, and there is a total of 40 questions to answer. Promoting daily practice, our tutors break down each skill with an emphasis on achieving high scores in the Reading exam. With an emphasis on tutoring students to find the correct answers in the quickest possible time, we also teach Medics to read regularly in English and to boost their lexical resources. Our booklet begins with the exam criteria, guiding students on what they need to do during the test, followed by challenges; strategies; reminders; hints; tips and preparation strategies.
