Applying principles from Linda and Carla's latest book, Interventions That Work: A Comprehensive Intervention Model for Reversing Reading Failure, their DVD series, Interventions that Work illustrates how teachers use data to implement research-based interventions—from kindergarten to eighth grade – that transform struggling students into successful readers and writers. The interventions are part of the authors' Comprehensive Intervention Model (CIM), a design for preventing reading failure in the early grades and reversing reading failure in the upper grades. The Guided Reading Plus (GRP) collection includes two disks of classroom video, lesson plans, and a wealth of resources along with a facilitator's guide for training and implementing the small group intervention. The GRP video collection is structured to provide training and support for teachers in learning about Guided Reading Plus as an intervention for struggling readers and as an intervention for their school's Response to Intervention (RTI) plan. Features: Provides a small-group intervention, based on the authors' Comprehension for Intervention Model (CIM) examples to assist ,for students in grades three and beyond who are lagging behind their peers in reading. Consists of a series of 30-minute daily reading and writing lessons designed to promote students' knowledge of genre and text structures through in-depth units of study. Includes opportunities for teachers to collect systematic data for progress monitoring. Guides teachers in implementing explicit teaching and concrete	struggling readers to develop efficient strategies for problem solving in texts and to comprehend the message at deeper levels. Features two disks: Disk One contains supplemental materials such as the Facilitators' Guide, Power Point Presentation slides, guide sheet of lesson components, planners, Text Map/Writing Guide, and mentor texts for personal narrative. Disk Two contains CFG video lessons in reading and	writing based on a unit of study for personal narrative texts. This disk is divided into four chapters with each chapter representing a unique phase with a total of 13 episodes under the phases. The episodes take place over a period of four weeks. The Girls' Guide to the SAT McDougal Littell/Houghton Mifflin The Assessment Guide for TIME FOR KIDS®: Nonfiction Readers offers an exciting mix of support materials for science, mathematics, and social studies lessons plans.

From reviews of the previous edition: 'Provides a wealth of information ... graphically illustrates the need for practitioners to be thoroughly knowledgeable.' Toni Belfield, Director of Information, Family Planning Association. The world's population is increasing dramatically. At levels over 7 billion, rising annually by over 83 million (with births outstripping deaths by a factor of c. 2.4) the toll this imbalance takes on the environment, developing economies and resources (healthcare, education, rates of poverty) and the lives of women in the poorer parts of the world is increasingly unsustainable. Even in the developed world there is still an unacceptably high rate of unplanned pregnancies, demonstrating that appropriate education at both local and global levels about the full range of available contraception is essential.

Using a highly accessible question-and-answer format, John Guillebaud and Anne MacGregor seek to ensure everything needed for good family planning practice is here in this book. This book provides a comprehensive introduction to public policy and administration in Ireland, thereby bridging the gap between general texts on public policy and policy analysis and books on Irish politics. Each chapter covers one of the key issues in policy analysis, eg.
rational choice, corporatism, and then illustrates this with an empirical Irish case study. With the inclusion of further reading, overviews of main concepts and source material, the editors provide a student-friendly textbook which fills an important gap in the available literature on Irish politics and public administration.
