Faces & Voices of Recovery is dedicated to organizing and mobilizing the over 23 million Americans in recovery from addiction to alcohol and other drugs, our families, friends, and allies Starting a Peer Support Program - Peers for Progress Participants follow a guided curriculum that is designed to identify feelings, learn healthy coping skills and provide a platform of trust where they can feel safe sharing their story. The program teaches healthy relationship boundaries, effective communication skills and instills a variety of key fundamentals that transform adult victims into high-functioning survivors.

All phases are critical to Program Sustainability.
However, attention should also be paid to behavioral, programmatically and policy-related aspects order to better sustain a program. This guide is organized in the way that walks you through these phases and provides examples and resources to help you start or enhance a peer support program.

Curriculum Modules
Through Domestic Abuse, Recovering Together (DART™), children and mothers can talk to each other about domestic abuse, learn to communicate and rebuild their relationship. The service, which has been recognised by the Home Office, also provides children and mothers with an opportunity to meet others who have lived through similar experiences.

Groups Recover Together offers medication-assisted treatment (MAT) for opioid addiction. We can prescribe Buprenorphine (Suboxone) medication you need today to stop feeling sick, and a supportive community you can rely on to help you to succeed.
