Rubrics for Assessing Student's Writing - Eberly Center ...

Rubrics were developed for the series of reflection papers and for the final research paper. The students are given these rubrics at the beginning of the course and immediately prior to each assignment. The TAs for the course use the rubrics when grading and return the students' writing assignments with the marked rubrics.

Characteristics to note in the rubric:

Language is descriptive, not evaluative.

Labels for degrees of success are descriptive (“Expert” “Proficient”, etc.); by avoiding the use of letters representing grades or numbers representing points, there is no implied contract that qualities of the paper will “add up” to a specified score or grade or that all dimensions are of equal grading ...

This is a general guide that I use in grading theological reflection papers (“rubric”).

Theological Reflection Attained. A reflection paper, here, assumes an appreciable knowledge of or scholarly interest in a larger category of learning and, thus, an aptitude to interact with others in the field. In Theology and Religious Studies, the student conducts such reflection and composes a theological reflection paper.
