My once upon a time
didn't end with happily ever after-but with blood-stained hands and cold blue eyes. The story of my life had been laid
beneath my feet since childhood, but until death, I'd never known that road was paved with stones
called lies. In this city of sun and heat,
cloaked in dark, both inside and out, I became somebody
other than Farm Girl.
There was no assassin
behind my back. No,
my shackles were just as tight but came in a different form. Like

Death's icy fingers
running down my spine, the ones that had gripped me for months, my past
haunted my present in the guise of nostalgia.
My old chains still left
marks on my skin,
their owner's gaze
following behind. But he didn't know I lived.
He didn't know I was so close, that I heard his name spoken every day. That I still hated him. Until my hate
started tasting
suspiciously different.
One mistake and
everything I'd created unraveled. A liar.
Corruptor. He stood
in front of me now.
The air was heavy
with expectation,
tense with the
possibilities of how this would unfold, of what he would do.
But there was always two sides to every story, and maybe in this version, the corruptor wasn't him, but me.

Luke tries to make sense of his near-death experience, he secretly turns to Hannah, who becomes his biggest confidante. In Luke, Hannah finds someone she can finally talk to about all the questions she's grappling with. Emory just wants everything to go back to normal -- the way it was before the accident. She has no idea why her relationship is spiraling out of control. But when the horrifying reason behind Hannah and Emory's argument ultimately comes to light, all three of them will be forced work together to protect the one with the biggest secret of all. In the follow-up to her New York Times bestseller, Every Last Word, Tamara Ireland Stone crafts a deeply moving, unforgettable story about love, betrayal, and the power of friendship.

Life on the Edge

Penguin

The moment the demon King Thorne of the Third Realm set eyes on the mortal huntress Sable, he knew she was his fated one. The fiery, dangerous female awakened hungers he had never experienced before, a dark craving and passion that has consumed him in their time apart. As the lunar cycle wanes, she enters his world again and nothing will stand in the way of him claiming his forever with her—not the relentless assault from the Fifth Realm or the dark elf male determined to seduce her out of his grasp. Intent on achieving the coveted position of commander at Archangel, Sable leads her small team into the dark underworld and the Third Realm, to a war where her allies are the very creatures she normally hunts—vampires, werewolves, and demons. Her eagerness to lead the deadly mission has everything to do with winning her promotion, and nothing to do with the kingdom 's brash, lethally seductive demon king—a king who stirred fierce desire and wildfire heat in her with just a look and an innocent touch when they first met, and has been in her wicked dreams ever since.
