To young Christians of the world, Pope Francis has a message for you: "Christ is alive, and he wants you to be alive!" In his fourth apostolic exhortation, Christus Vivit, Pope Francis encapsulates the work of the 2018 synod of bishops on "Young People, The Faith, and Vocational Discernment." Pope Francis has always had a special relationship with young people, and in his fatherly love for you he shows that: You can relate to young people in Scripture who made a difference You identify with the Christ who is always young You face difficult issues in the world today You yearn for the truth of the Gospel You are capable of amazing things when you respond to the Gospel You learn and grow with help from the faithful of all generations You need bold and creative youth ministry You can discover who God made you to be You are urged to pray for discernment

Christus Vivit is written for and to young people, but Pope Francis also wrote it for the entire Church, because, as he says, reflecting on our young people inspires us all.

"May the Holy Spirit urge you on as you run this race. The Church needs your momentum, your intuitions, your faith. We need them! And when you arrive where we have not yet reached, have the patience to wait for us."

This is the first multi-volume collection of major writings on cultural anthropology, the sub-field of anthropology which is concerned with how people in different places live and understand the world around them. It covers key methodologies (participant observation, ethnography) and topics (kinship, ritual, values) and maps the development of the field from its beginnings in the mid-nineteenth century through to recent and current debates on the 'critique of anthropology' and the rise of new methodologies such as multi-sited research. The four volumes are arranged thematically and each is separately introduced. Drawing upon essays from anthropology and related disciplines, the volumes together chart the origins of the field, explore its core theories and methods, and trace the proliferation of sub-fields that it has generated, including anthropology of art, urban anthropology, medical anthropology and the anthropology of gender and sexuality. With key texts from James George Frazer, Lewis Henry Morgan, Bronislaw Malinowski, Franz Boas, Ruth Benedict, Margaret Mead, Lucy Mair, Claude Levi Strauss, Melford Spiro, Marshall Sahlins, Laura Nader, Maurice Godelier, David Graeber, Suad Joseph and many more, this set is an essential resource for scholars and students of the subject.

In questo ebook, gli autori illustrano come muoversi e usare i mezzi di trasporto in modo consapevole, per alleggerire o azzerare l'impatto ambientale, risparmiando tempo e denaro. La mobilità sostenibile è soprattutto uno stile di vita che permette nuove esperienze di socialità e di riscoperta di sé e dell'interconnessione con la natura. L'ebook è suddiviso – e approfondisce con esempi e pratici consigli – tre campi: . la riscoperta del camminare, non solo per mantenersi in forma ma soprattutto per fare un'esperienza di vita e, perché no, spirituale; . il semplice quanto rivoluzionario uso della bicicletta che permette all'uomo di triplicare la sua velocità di moto, diminuendo l'energia impiegata senza nessun utilizzo di fonti esterne e senza nessun impatto sull'ambiente; . l'economia di condivisione che promuove le nuove frontiere della mobilità. Grazie ai consigli pratici e al racconto delle esperienze degli autori avrai tutte le informazioni utili e gli strumenti per muoverti rispettando l'ambiente e in armonia con ciò che ti circonda e che sei.
