In an APA Style paper, every page has a page header. For student papers, the page header usually consists of just a page number in the page's top-right corner. For professional papers intended for publication, it also includes a running head. A running head is simply the paper's title in all capital letters.

The Roman numerals are used for the main headings in your outline (I, II, III, IV). Capital letters are used for the subheadings (A, B, C, D, E). For your sub-headings in your first subheadings, you should use Arab numerals 1, 2, 3, 4, 5. Lowercase letters for more subheadings, if applicable use a, b, c, d, e.

Format of an APA Research Paper Title Page. Every writing a research paper, outside of MLA, starts with a title page. The APA pays lots of attention to the front page's layout. These formatting requirements are simply yet must be strictly followed in an APA paper. The title of the paper should be placed in the center of the title page.
