William Boyd's Restless, a tale of wartime espionage, is as acute as it is ambitious, says Helen Dunmore.

Adrian Michaels reviews Restless, William Boyd ' s terrific two-part adaptation of his own spy thriller for BBC One. There are two tales going on, set 35 years apart. Rampling is a widow in England in the Seventies, while her younger wartime self is played by Hayley Atwell. So it was Atwell-as-Rampling that got up to some vigorous " rampling " ...
