Derek: "Mate!" I gasped, catching her before she hit her head as she passed out from a broken heart

I gave her for f**king those she-wolves. How was I thinking, and how am I going to fix this? Who meets their mate while f**king not one but two girls? Me apparently!

Seventeen-year-old Rose Baily's life takes a dramatic turn when her mother decides to move their family from the bustling streets of New York City to the quiet, mysterious town of Anderson, Indiana.

Leaving behind her best friend Tiara and the only home she's ever known, Rose finds herself stepping into a world filled with secrets and new beginnings.

But nothing could have prepared her for what she'd witness in that office... *****

Rose: Imagine my surprise when I walked in on a man and two women that looked to be 20 or 21 having in a room that looks like an office.

Imagine how surprised I was when I was frozen in place, unable to move as I felt a sharp pain in my chest from seeing them together as he one from behind while she leaned over a desk from pleasure and the other woman was him.

The man froze in place and looked at me with a guilty look on his face. The pain got worse in my chest and before I blacked out, I swore I heard him say Mate!

Oh no. I was actually glaring at the king! My hands dropped to my sides as our gazes locked. The tension between us was so thick it felt like the air itself had turned solid.

Or was it just me? His piercing grey eyes seemed to see straight through me, delving into my very soul. I couldn't look away, completely transfixed by his powerful presence.

Did he sense something in me that others didn't? Or did he find me lacking—just a common peasant girl hopelessly out of her depth here? I couldn't tell from the hard, unyielding look in his eyes.

After what felt like an eternity, he turned abruptly away. I released the breath I hadn't realized I was holding. "I have made my choices," he announced to the room. Silence fell, heavy and expectant. Everyone's eyes were fixed on him, even his generals'.

"The first girl I have selected is..." He paused for dramatic effect. "Freya Hadid." Chosen as one of the Alpha King's breeders. Freya is treated unfairly by both the Alpha and her fellow breeders. She's accused of committing different crimes and does not go unpunished.

She spends a night with the Alpha and he does not seem to want to let her go after that night. This leaves her vulnerable to a lot of enemies who would stop at nothing to make her utterly miserable. How would Freya scale through and prove herself worthy of being a Luna? What happens when a deep dark secret is discovered? Book 1

This volume contains a series of provocative essays that explore expressions of magic and ritual power in the ancient world. The essays are authored by leading scholars in the fields of Egyptology, ancient Near Eastern studies, the Hebrew Bible, Judaica, classical Greek and Roman studies, early Christianity and patristics, and Coptology.

Throughout the book the essays examine the terms employed in descriptions of ancient magic. From this examination comes a clarification of magic as a polemical term of exclusion but also an understanding of the classical Egyptian and early Greek conceptions of magic as a more neutral category of inclusion. This book should prove to be foundational for future scholarly studies of ancient magic and ritual power. This publication has also been published in paperback, please click here for details.

"You lied to me! You betrayed me! I gave you my heart, and you toyed with it. Everything you asked for, I have given to you. But why?" I demanded, my voice breaking as tears streamed relentlessly down my cheeks. "Betrayed you?"

Sebastian asked. His indifference shattered me even more.

"Let's get it straight into this head of yours. You were weak from the start, and I had hoped you could be of use, but to my greatest disappointment, you turned out to be nothing. How do you intend that Sebastian? Alpha to the pack would end up with the likes of you as a mate and Luna?" *** Evelyn once shared a secret relationship with Alpha Sebastian, dreaming of becoming his mate. But on the night of her coming-of-age ceremony, her failure to shift led to public humiliation and banishment from the Pack by Sebastian himself. To make matters worse, Sebastian announced Marie as his chosen mate, crushing Evelyn's trust and heart. Exiled to the human world, Evelyn found solace in Edward, with whom she built a life and had a daughter, Linda. Yet Linda's frail health, tied to her wolf blood, revealed the harsh reality: Evelyn couldn't provide the life her daughter needed. Tragedy struck when Linda succumbed to illness, and Evelyn uncovered Edward's betrayal- he had pursued her for no more than a cruel bet. Fueled by grief and anger, Evelyn rebuilt herself, becoming an investigative journalist who exposed society's darkest truths. Three years later, as a celebrated reporter, she receives an unexpected letter from Sebastian- a plea for her to return to the Pack. Haunted by the past and faced with an uncertain future, will Evelyn risk everything to confront the man who destroyed her?

dense?" she snapped at me, all traces of amusement vanishing from her eyes. "Just go check on Aurora, will you?" "Why?" I shot back, equally frustrated. "She's your mate, isn't she? And don't ask me how I know, Caleb. You gave yourself away that day at the restaurant!" She threw her arms up in exasperation. "Just... go check on Aurora already. You're seriously hopeless!" "Will you please stop interfering in my life?" I sighed, rubbing my temples. "I told you before—there has to be some kind of mistake! Don't try to force us together unnecessarily." Aurora Valentine wishes she could escape this world and leave everything behind. Tormented, bullied, and harassed on a daily basis, she lives under the mercy of her treacherous, gambling, and alcoholic father, who takes sick pleasure in abusing her. Her fellow high school students despise her for no reason, and she faces relentless harassment at work. The only thing anchoring her to this life is her five-year-old brother, Riley, whom her mother entrusted to her on her deathbed. But everything changes when the school's biggest bully and bad boy, Caleb Blackburn, suddenly takes an interest in her. The boy who once tormented her has become her unexpected protector, drawing not just new allies but also the wrath of jealous classmates who want her gone for good. How can she reconcile the fact that her former tormentor is now obsessed with her? Will she take a chance on love, or will she meet the same tragic fate as her mother—broken, destroyed, and buried six feet under? Book 2 in the Duology.

Desi knew that she was different though she never knew how different she really was. Her history had been hidden from her. She knew she was a werewolf, but she was always kept on the outside of any of the packs she lived with. Her mother moved them around for the first seventeen years of her life. With the coming to age party looming in the very near future Desi needed some answers. Those answers were found when a pack of her kind came to the house that night. Out of the blue Desi's world changed completely. She was not the one to be kept on the side of the packs. Desiree was the mate for the next Alpha of all their kind. It was her birthrite. It was part of her blood. Going back to her birthplace she met with the man she had been given too. Gabriel was picture perfect. He was everything that any girl would dream of and the blood ceremony that had taken place before Desi was removed from the island meant he was as much hers as she was his. The two have to figure out what they want out of life and how they were going to be the next rulers of their kind. The others, another supernatural species, finds that Desi is connected to them in many ways. When they offer help in hiding the pair from Gabriel's overreaching, power hungry, and blood thirsty parents the two find the time they need to become the partners they need to be. Now all they have to do is be able to stop a war from happening when they reappear.
