?Running Ransom Road on Apple Books
'Running Ransom Road, Confronting The Past, One Marathon At A Time,' by Caleb Danilooff, is an incredible book where the author's attempt to come to terms with the self-destruction of his past is experienced during the visceral, spiritual, and emotional maelstrom of running a marathon. The result is perhaps my favorite book on marathoning.

Caleb Danilooff never set out to be a marathoner. Then again, he never set out to be a drunk, either. But after years of sobriety, he puts on a pair of running shoes and starts down a path that will lead him to compete in marathons across the world on a journey of self-discovery. As he runs from Boston to Vermont to Moscow, Danilooff draws lessons from the road and confronts the most destructive period in his life, completing races in each of the cities where he once lived and wreaked havoc.
