Recognizing students' widespread frustration with the SAT history passage (also known as "Global Conversation"), IES Test Prep hoped to provide a resource that matches the quality of material tested by the College Board. The SAT Reading: History Passages book contains 50 SAT reading comprehension passages that focus on the struggle for civil and human rights as seen from various points of view and within different political contexts. With these 50 passages, students (and tutors) will also find 500 SAT Reading questions along with 2000 detailed answer format yet offer the student test taker a wealth of advice and practice material. This discipline-specific New SAT book features five full Reading and Writing practice tests, along with answer explanations that show students how to deal with the nuances and intricacies of the New SAT. Starting in 2016, students all across America will take a dramatically redesigned version of the SAT. While the test will still address the essentials of grammar and reading comprehension, the format will be completely transformed new pacing, new question types, and new required skillsets. To excel, you will need consistent practice with supremely accurate material. Yet books that offer such material are in short supply, as most test prep companies scramble to adapt to a rapidly evolving SAT market. Created by the world-class editors and educators of Integrated Educational Services, this collection of five Verbal Tests for the New SAT fulfills the needs of students as no other volume can. Test takers who are ready to move above and beyond the already-released College Board tests or even those who are just starting out will find much to learn in this efficient volume. Discover Reading and Grammar sections that match the official SAT in design and difficulty. Then, use self-assessments, scaled scores, and the most insightful answer
