In addition to the time frame and sequence of skills, I also included my rationale and reasons for teaching the skill at that point in the year (or my reasons for teaching that skill before or after other math skills).

We started Saxon Math

back in 2002 when my oldest was about 5-years-old. Even then, I purchased used Saxon
math textbooks from a friend, so they were already a couple of years old. Saxon math 87 is the only grade for which we have the actual Saxon math homeschool kit. I think I ended up buying that one new because I couldn't find it used.

The “homeschool” line

(the two-toned books

that have names like

Saxon Math 7/6 and

5/4) were created

before Common Core

existed. The “school

line” (the books with

the colorful pictures

like soccer balls,

keyboards, and

camera) is essentially

the same textbook as

the homeschool line,

but it has been adapted to meet Common Core
