"Scorpions The

Battles and Triumphs of FDR's Great Supreme Court Justices is" a very interesting book. All of FDR's chosen justices subscribed to FDR's liberal views and had distinguished themselves in some way in the eyes of their boss prior to being picked. In all FDR appointed 8 justices.

Description of the book "Scorpions: The Battles and Triumphs of FDR's Great Supreme Court Justices": A tiny, ebullient Jew who started as America's leading liberal and ended as its most famous judicial conservative. A Klansman who became an absolutist advocate of free speech and civil rights.
