Secret Wars Series by Jim Shooter - Goodreads

Secret Wars II is not as great as the first Secret Wars, nor is it as action-packed and as well-written. There are lots of classic twists in the first Secret Wars, but in Secret Wars II you have no idea what to expect to begin with, so there is little to guess at all. The art is not quite as good as the first, but it is still great, and very 80's.

Early life. Jim Shooter was born in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, to parents Ken and Eleanor "Ellie" Shooter, who are of Polish descent. Shooter read comics as a child, though he stopped when he was about eight years old. His interest in the medium was rekindled in 1963, at the age of twelve, through the comics in the children's ward of the hospital where he convalesced after undergoing minor surgery.
