Section 2 The Beginnings of Imperial India. By the 500s B.C., the kingdom of Magadha had emerged as the most powerful of the Indian states, but it was not until the sub-continent was invaded and partially conquered by the Persians and the Greeks that a true imperial vision began to take hold. Apparently inspired by Alexander the Great's conquests, Chandragupta Maurya seized control of Maghgada and began to unite most of India into the Mauryan Empire.

Summary Section 2: Beginnings of Puritanism
Sometime around the time of his marriage, John Winthrop became interested in a growing sect of the Protestant community called the Puritans, a church with a more individual focus than the Church of England.

Section 2 is specifically designed for people who we (the Approved Mental Health Professional and Psychiatrists) consider are in need of an assessment for a mental disorder and that due to their presentation and possible risks feel that this needs to take place in a hospital setting. The section 2 provides the legal framework for this assessment to take place.
