4A1.2(d)(2)(B) (“add 1 point under §4A1.1(c) for each adult or juvenile sentence . . . not covered in (A)”) (emphasis added). In any event, by counting sentences rather than convictions, Guideline § 4A1.2 blurs the line, apparently deliberately, between convictions and non-convictions, and thereby treats them identically.

USSC Guidelines

Section 4A1.1(e) of the Federal Sentencing Guidelines states the following: Add 1 point for each prior sentence resulting from a conviction of a crime of violence that did not receive any points under (a), (b), or (c) above because such sentence was treated as a single sentence, up to a total of 3 points for this subsection.

About guidelines - Sentencing Council

Guidelines help to ensure that courts across England and Wales are consistent in their approach to sentencing. According to the Coroners and Justice Act 2009, when sentencing an offender for an offence committed on or after 6 April 2010, a court must follow any relevant sentencing guidelines, unless it is contrary to the interests of justice to do so.
