John Edwin Sandys' A History of Classical Scholarship is the most expansive and comprehensive treatment of its title subject available in English, but unfortunately no easily-read text form is available on the internet. Most of the attempts at a digitized text have many serious errors stemming from the book's unique typographical format and the extensive use...

So Sententiae Antiquae is something of a digital commonplace book, replicating all the delights and horrors of ancient authors like Aulus Gellius, Aelian, Macrobius and Philostratus. We are not saying we are anywhere near as good as these guys. But we do quote from them from time to time...
