The rural town of New Hope may have lived up to its name at one time in its history...but that was over eight decades ago. Today it is more concerned with hiding its secrets from the glances of curious tourists and vacation travelers. Randall Garner was one of those who happened on the small community virtually by accident. Even he didn ' t see the haunting forces that lurked behind the friendly smiles and the quaint storefronts. Of course, his perception was thrown slightly off center by the mysterious young woman, Casandra Blankenship. And Garner would discover much too late that histories long dead and buried...often prefer to stay that way. The journey continues...
