Sex Criminals Volume 1, written by Matt Fraction and illustrated by Chip Zdarsky is the trade collection of the first five issues of the ongoing comic book series. As you may gather from the title, it is not a comic book for children. I picked it up because of Tansy spruiking it on Galactic Suburbia podcast (and then again in person at WorldCon).

Volume 1 of Sex Criminals puts you smack dab in a world where people can freeze time when they can orgasm. I won't give much away except to say that its a great read about two very relatable characters. Don't expect to get the whole story from this single volume though, Fraction and Zdarsky are playing the long game with this series!

Sex Criminals Vol 1 One

Time honored Sex Criminals as the #1 comic series/graphic novel of 2013. IGN tagged the work as "amazing", and said that the story is "so addictive, you'll find yourself staring at the last page in horror when you realize you'll have to wait another month to find out what happens next".

The series, of course, follows two oddball lovers who discover they share a rare ability to freeze time when they orgasm, allowing them to commit crimes with impunity. Unfortunately, as of the end of Volume 1, they discovered that their meddlings with time are being monitored by a group who share similar abilities: the Sex Police, if you will.
