The DVD played them with ease. I like Sharp TV's. I also own a 37" Sharp LCD HD TV which is 5 years old. The picture quality is still great and has been trouble free. Even though the price is bit more spendy than for similar models, the overall quality of the 19" Sharp TV makes the cost reasonable and it deserves a five star rating. Support - Sharp - Sharp TV USA

All Sharp products have a model number stated on them, some in more than one place. The model number can be found on the original box the item was purchased in, on the product manual, and on the product in the locations described below. All products state " Model: " followed by the model number.
