Traditional Signwriting - Signwriter in Midhurst, West

Sign Painting I paint signs in a variety of ways. Signs are very site specific and each job has it's own individual things to consider. Whenever I first approach a potential sign, the size, colour, finish, the sign's surroundings and overall longevity of the finished work are the main things I consider.

As fourth generation sign painters, you can be confident that we will be using the same tried and tested traditional signwriting techniques which have been passed on through the years. Our skilled signwriters are trained in traditional sign painting, gold leaf, gilding and they can use all of these in the time tested way or with a contemporary twist.

Bob Dewhurst has been painting signs by hand since the 1970s, authoring many of the iconic images that came out of San Francisco's Haight Ashbury district, made famous by the hippie era's Summer of Love. He works out of a collection of old trailers in what's left of San Francisco's industrial district.
