Silk Road by Colin Falconer - Goodreads
SILK ROAD special excerpt DAYS, WEEKS; formless, endless, the monotony of the journey broken only by almost imperceptible changes in the desert surface and the vagaries of the weather. One morning broke warm and blue, but by noon the sky was leaden with clouds and the winds turned the horizon to an impenetrable yellow haze.

THE STATUE OF LIBERTY: IF SHE COULD TALK - COLIN FALCONER
“ Silk Road ” by Colin Falconer is well named because the silk road itself is the most complex, vivid and well-drawn character of the book. Falconer clearly did his research about the route itself – its changing geography and climates, and the diverse and fascinating people, who lived along it during the 13th century.
