handful of courageous men and their congregations who risked stable occupations, security and the approval of life-long friends to be obedient to God's call. It is also the story of every believer who is searching for the Church. Where Christ is Lord. Where holiness, human responsibility, and the sovereignty of God are preached. Where fellowship is more than a covered-dish supper in the church basement. And where fads and fashions take a backseat to apostolic worship and doctrine.

Biblical Literature

Are you struggling to find joy in life? Have you lost your ability to sing? Faced with a devastating diagnosis of progressive multiple sclerosis, Gary Miller found he needed more from his Bible studies.

During Gary's in-depth study of God's promises,

God revealed to him that a fulfilling life lies in praising the Lord. This experience developed into the powerful study of Psalms and the New Testament in Sing to the Lord a New Song:

Transforming Life through Scripture. Learn to praise

God for who He is and give Him thanks for what He has done. Recapture the excitement of your faith and celebrate who you are in Christ as you open your Bible and prepare your heart to

For as long as people have worshipped together, music has played a key role in church life. With O Sing unto the Lord, Andrew Gant offers a fascinating history of English church music, from the Latin chant of late antiquity to the great proliferation of styles seen in contemporary repertoires. The ornate complexity of pre-Reformation Catholic liturgies revealed the exclusive nature of this form of worship. By contrast, simple English psalms, set to well-known folk songs, summed up the aims of the Reformation with its music for everyone. The Enlightenment brought hymns, the Methodists and Victorians a new delight in the beauty and emotion of worship. Today, church music mirrors our multifaceted worldview, embracing the sounds of pop and jazz along with the more traditional music of choir and organ. And reflecting its truly global reach, the influence of English church music can be found in everything from masses sung in Korean to American Sacred Harp singing. From medieval chorales to “Amazing Grace,” West Gallery music to Christmas carols, English church music has broken through the boundaries of time, place, and denomination to remain familiar and cherished everywhere. Expansive and sure to appeal to all music lovers, O Sing unto the Lord is the biography of a tradition, a book about people, and a celebration of one of the most important sides to our cultural heritage.

Sing to the Lord a New Covenant) Song A & C Black God Wants to Hear You Sing!, Ruthie Jacobsen's eleventh book, is written to bring hope and courage in tough times. Created to inspire and encourage, this motivational book has been strongly endorsed by well-known leaders such as former U.S. Attorney General John Ashcroft, music legends like gospel musician Bill Gaither and faith-based figures such as In Touch Ministries founder and well-known television personality Dr. Charles Stanley. The book has been described as a major dose of courage and strength as our country goes through difficult times. And for the price of the book alone, there is also included a superb, upbeat full-length CD with faith-inspiring music, custom-produced specifically for the book by Greater Vision, the most awarded trio in gospel music. A reader from Massachusetts said, "I have just read your book that a friend loaned to me. God used it to be a real blessing to me at a very hurtful time in my life. Thank you for sharing your stories that reinforced my faith that God has a thousand ways to provide for us when we see none!" Ruthie Jacobsen is a member of the National Prayer Committee, host of a weekly television show on Sky Angel for six years and an internationally-sought speaker. She is known in some circles as a Professional Encourager. The fifteen easy-read chapters are built around the true stories of people facing difficulties who dared to trust God for His providence. You'll laugh, you'll cry but you'll find courage – and reason to sing. Sing to the Lord a New Song

Taking The Long View, this book represents the life and witness of Rev. Dr. Joseph E. Lowery. In the annals of the church, there are few leaders who are greater or who have spoken with a clearer voice. Born during the height of the Jim Crow era in Huntsville, Alabama, Dr. Lowery has been singing the Lord's song in a strange land his whole life. Life, he says, is a strange land, not as orderly as we might like, but even so we must do God's will, even in and under difficult circumstances.

This is a comprehensive and easy-to-use guide to choosing hymns for worship. For each Sunday and Holy Day, up to 30 hymns which relate to the Old Testament, Psalm and Epistle and Gospel readings of the day are listed, plus where they may be found in all the leading hymn books and hymn collections. This new edition now features Common Praise and other major new hymn books published since this resource first appeared in 1997. The Seventh-day Adventist Hymnal. The Good Book Company Sing! has grown from Keith and Kristyn Getty's passion for congregational singing; it's been formed by their traveling and playing and listening and discussing and learning and teaching all over the world. And in writing it, they have five key aims: • to discover why we sing and the overwhelming joy and holy privilege that comes with singing • to consider how singing impacts our hearts and minds and all of our lives • to cultivate a culture of family singing in our daily home life • to equip our churches for wholeheartedly singing to the Lord and one another as an expression of unity • to inspire us to see congregational singing as a radical witness to the world They have also added a few “bonus tracks” at the end with some more practical suggestions for different groups who are more deeply involved with church singing. God intends for this compelling vision of His people singing—a people joyfully joining together in song with brothers and sisters around the world and around his heavenly throne—to include you. He wants you, he wants us, to sing. Sing a New Song Review & Herald Publishing (Lillenas Publications). This hymnal offers 611 of the greatest hymns of all time. Millions of believers have sung and memorized its hymns, finding their expressions true to scripture and experience. As each generation discarded some and embraced others, these hymns were chosen and treasured, century after century. Every aspect of the hymnal was designed for practical usefulness. It is a working resource for both the worshipper and the worship planner. The hymnal is divided into three major sections: God, Salvation, and The Body of Christ. Topical subsections are indicated at the top of the hymnal page. Also provided are 29 worship sequences, drawing together two or more hymns on a similar theme. Opening Scripture readings and musical introductions and interludes are often included. These sequences are designed to bring flow and focus to the worship time, while maximizing congregational participation. Contents: Abide with Me * Be Still and Know * Beneath the Cross of Jesus *

The Word of God as it has been received by the church has embedded in it dozens of songs.
Each of these songs has a story to tell us about God and God's people. In brief meditations, twelve faculty at Wycliffe College explore Songs of Scripture in this volume to answer the questions "Why do Scriptures tell us to sing? What are we to sing? What does singing make of us?" Each of these meditations will give you a new appreciation for God's gift of songs. By singing the words of Scripture, we tune our hearts to God's song.

Profound reflections on the cross that help you to meditate on and marvel at the sacrificial love of Jesus.
This book can be used as a devotional, especially during Lent and Easter. These profound reflections on the cross from David Mathis, author of The Christmas We Didn't Expect, will help you to meditate on and marvel at Jesus' life, sacrificial death, and spectacular resurrection-enabling you to treasure anew who Jesus is and what he has done. Many of us are so familiar with the Easter story that it becomes easy to miss subtle details and difficult to really enjoy its meaning. This book will help you to pause and marvel at Jesus, whose now-glorified wounds are a sign of his unfailing love and the decisive victory that he has won: “He was pierced for our transgressions, he was crushed for our iniquities; the punishment that brought us peace was on him, and by his wounds we are healed.”

(Isaiah 53:5) This book can be used as a devotional. The chapters on Holy Week make it especially helpful during the Lent season and at Easter.

God Delights in You God loves us. With all our faults and failures, with all the secret sins no one else knows about. In fact, He rejoices over us so much that He breaks out in inexpressible joy and song as He thinks about us. "The Lord your God is in your midst, a mighty one who will save; he will rejoice over you with gladness; he will quiet you by his love; he will exult over you with loud singing." --Zephaniah 3:17 That's how God feels about you! He looks at you, He thinks of you...and He sings for joy! In The Singing God Sam Storms explores God's immeasurable love for His children. You don't need to be different; you don't need to be better. You just need to know that God loves you just the way you are now...today. When you truly believe this, you will find the strength and incentive to fight sin, experience freedom from shame, and walk in the fullness of all that God desires for you.

O Sing unto the Lord Forgotten Books

The Sanctuary or Church of Christ Jesus is our hospital and another throne we come to for dumping our hurts and renewing of our minds. As we come in and as we go out, if we believe the Word of God, we should be excited about what the Word of God reveals about who we are in Him. We should leave Church stronger than before because of what we have been taught, and believe Gods Holy message being explained to us. We have to examine the Word of God to know the truth is being taught. (1 John 2:13, 5:4, KJV ref only) Our Pastors should not have to plead for a response to the anointed Word of God during service. I hear pastors/teachers/ministers saying, Come on somebody? Can I get the Church to say amen? Are you all getting the message? Are you all awake? It is dishonorable not to respond with praise to the awesome Word of God. (Hebrews 13:15-17, AMPC ref only) Did you know were doxological? Meaning we were made to worship the Lord of lords, who is the King of kings, Jesus our Savior, with our expressions in songs, hymns, praises and our lifestyles! We have so many reasons to praise God, and to be thankful as Christ believers. (Isaiah 56:7, AMPC ref only) PRAISE THE LORD! Sing to the Lord a new song, praise

Him in the assembly of His saints! Let the high praises of God be in their throats and a two-edged sword in their hands (Psalm 149:1, 6, AMPC)
