At Sands Investment Group, we're seeing single tenant net lease properties rise in popularity among investors who want to diversify their portfolio without taking on a lot of risk and responsibility in their investment. Single tenant NNN lease properties are more simplistic in nature since you're only dealing with one tenant, and usually over an extended time period.

Industrial Real Estate Firm seeking Single-Tenant ...

Single tenant properties carry many of the same investment risks as other types of real estate. Whether it be an unfavorable lease agreement that provides weak covenants for the landlord, or various use restrictions for the property limiting the type of tenant – things come up during an inspection period that may cause one to seriously question or back out of a deal.

Typically, a Single Tenant NNN property lease ranges from 10 to 25 years.

Therefore, a NNN Lease Landlord or investor receives a predictable rental income from the single tenant for a long time, given that the underlying tenant business has good predictability of cash flow. Even when compared to other real estate investments, the cash flow is more predictable in NNN properties, this is because the rental rates rely on a long term lease agreement and the tenant pays for all the operating ...
