Sister of Mine by Sabra Waldfogel is an interesting concept which is done somewhat unevenly. It is a story of two sisters, from antebellum years to the resolution of the Civil War. One sister, Adelaide Mannheim, is the daughter of a successful Jewish plantation owner and cotton dealer and the other sister, Rachel, is a slave and Adelaide's maid. Sabra Waldfogel

When Adelaide learns this shameful truth, a uniquely difficult relationship unfolds between the half sisters, one a free white woman, the other her dark-skinned slave. Slave and Sister takes place in Savannah, Georgia and the surrounding hill country cotton plantations. Mannheim owns a large tract of land ...
