Tom Thorne, while a bit cliched, was still a well-developed character. He is a crusty old investigator with some old-school techniques and not well liked by his peers for his tendency to bend the rules. Yes, it's a bit trite, but the very familiarity makes for a good, comfortable read.

Sleepyhead (The Tom Thorne Novels Book 1) - Kindle edition ...

Mark Billingham alternates between Tom Thorne's perspective, that of the killer and even that of one of his victims. Hearing Alison's thoughts is incredibly. It's a very unique reading experience and she actually brings a humorous aspect to the story - how unbelievable that may seem.
