Written specifically with service technicians and engineers in mind, this book is designed as a bench-side companion and guide to the principles involved in repairing and adjusting CD players. Engineers will find this a helpful companion to the various service manuals. The text takes a problem solving approach with numerous examples, circuit diagrams and line drawings. Engineers who need to achieve a better understanding of CD technology will find this book an essential tool for fault diagnosis, adjustment and repair. This book not only covers the mechanical design but also the integrated circuits within a CD player. It is written for immediate application and is well illustrated, so it should become a welcome addition to the rack of tools available to the service engineer. Ken Clements has extensive experience of the service industry both as a service manager and later in technical training with Sony and Pioneer. It is his hands-on knowledge that makes the book so valuable, not only as a wide-ranging reference but also as a benchtop manual to be kept within reach at all times when working with CD players.

Miller's career has stalled. Following a sensational murder in an adjacent county and a questionable ruling assigning her the case the native Georgian is once again newsworthy. While the evidence all but guarantees a guilty verdict, the forty-one year old has distractions. Foremost is her younger male assistant Robert Tims. Not only does she consider him to be a legal genius, she is totally smitten by him. With less than a week to go in the trial the fiery redhead has doubts about the defendant's guilt. Unsettled, she goes into seclusion to try and determine what really happened that murderous October morning. The storyline she uncovers is beyond anyone's wildest imagination. "Couldn't pick a favorite character. Like them all." Tom from Columbus, Ohio "Can't wait to find out the titles of the songs. I can name two of them for sure." FW from Macon, Georgia "Whoever plays the DA in the movie will definitely win an Oscar." Ann from New Orleans "I love the widow. She's hot." Adam from North Carolina "The ending completely fooled me." Martha from Washington, DC
