Soul Eater NOT! is a great read, especially for those who also read Soul Eater. NOT! expands upon the setting of Soul Eater more than the original manga did, all while following three great characters who have even more depth than the main cast of Soul Eater, all thanks to the relaxed attitude of the NOT! series and the slice-of-life execution of the story.

I enjoyed reading Soul Eater for what it was. The story was unique, but I wasn't personally excited to continue wanting to read this series after Vol. 1. The protagonist has a scythe that is a living weapon. This living weapon can speak, take on human-like form, and has a personality and will of its own (despite its master).
