unfailing love stretches beyond anything a human being has done, is doing, or will do; Nothing that someone does can separate them from a loving God who created you with purpose, on purpose, and for a purpose. Through man's sin at the tree of the knowledge of good and evil God set into motion a redemptive act that would allow mankind to commune without spot or blemish with a Holy God by sending a piece of Him to take on earthly human form, live a life without sin, but die a death meant for the worst of sinners; IN YOUR PLACE AS SACRIFICE FOR ALL SIN. If Jesus died to bring forgiveness of your past sins, then every time you sinned Jesus would have to go back on the cross and die again for your sin. Jesus' death was a finished work of redemption meaning this - YOU are forgiven for past, present, and future sin; He was beaten, ridiculed, tortured, stabbed, spit on, mocked, died, went to the pit of hell to take back the keys of spiritual separation, and rose from the dead in a finished continual work to cover all humankind's sin, shortcomings, failures, disease, mistakes, and death itself to bring God's most beloved creation YOU back into right standing with God The Father. Absolution comes from the root word Absolute. It is a strong English word with definitive meaning; It is a word that expresses sharp complete and total completion. In this word God began to bring so much peace to me; It is human nature to think back and wish one did this differently or didn't go down that road; Maybe could erase a mistake or two and do a few things better. There is nothing wrong with thinking about your past; remembering the great accomplishments, reflecting on how you learned from this action or that encounter. It is really important though, not to fall into a trap of regret. The dean of students at a Bible college I attended was giving a lecture and asked the classroom this question: "How many of you would like to erase your mistakes?", the whole classroom raises their hands. "If you learn from your mistakes, it erase the mistake and turns it into a life lesson" - Pastor Todd Holmes. Regret can lead you down a road to depression that swallows someone from moving forward in a self inflicted force to undermine accomplishing great things for the kingdom of God. It is easy to go deep into thought about mistakes and after a short while it becomes a long winding road where your mind is only clouded with regret and you forget all the wonderful things God has done for you. The enemy of your soul fights on a minute by minute basis to try and distract you from living a full and meaningful life; One of the ways Satan tries to distract the believer is by putting thoughts into your head. The best way to avoid focusing on all the mistakes you may have made is by focusing on all the wonderful ways God has showed up for you and blessed you with life. Like I said it is great to learn from life; It is destructive to regret your life! In the chapters of this book we are going to focus on the amazing, absolute, complete, and total forgiveness God has granted to everyone living on planet earth through dissection of the Holy written Word of God; Through testimonies; Life stories; Inspirational quotations; And many other sources to bring wisdom and relevance to this subject of amazing grace and wonderful good news = The Gospel.
