Laurie Notaro - Wikipedia

Notaro's brilliance with Spooky Little Girl is making Lucy's reactions to being dead, being in spook school, and then being thrust back among the living, mirror how the reader images they would feel in the same situation. And if you need another reason to check out this novel, it was an extremely quick read, because I couldn't put it down.

Spooky Little Girl by Laurie Notaro

Laurie Notaro has been fired from seven jobs, laid off from three, and voluntarily liberated from one. Despite all that, she has managed to write a number of New York Times bestselling essay collections, including The Idiot Girls' Action-Adventure Club, Autobiography of a...

Laurie Notaro writes snappy, sharp humor essays and, apparently, slow, unfunny novels. This is a mess. The writing's repetitious and contradictory. Halfway through, the POV snaps an axle and starts weaving all over the road and sidewalk.
