Timothy Taylor wrote a pretty good book in Stanley Park. Worth while checking out.

Fiction Book Review: STANLEY PARK by Timothy L. Taylor ...

Timothy Taylor writes straight, strong, unadorned prose... He’s well in command of his material. Writes great dialogue. Early on, he sets his scene, gives us Jeremy’s background, and keeps his story, yes, cooking. Stanley Park is alive with the places and sights, sounds and smells, the psychic character of Vancouver. It thrums with a powerful sense of the city, urban surfaces as well as primal currents.
