Matt Cruse is a cabin boy on the Aurora, a huge airship that sails hundreds of feet above the ocean, ferrying wealthy passengers from city to city. It is the life Matt's always wanted; convinced he's lighter than air, he imagines himself as buoyant as the hydrium gas that powers his ship.

Kenneth Oppel's airship

it's focused on the wondrous expanses outside Earth's, and the dangers that go with its first pioneers.

Starclimber - Wikipedia

A terrific conclusion to the Matt Cruse series. This one features Matt and Kate de Vries on a mission to outer space. Believe it or not (and some of it surely is unrealistic but fun), the StarClimber is a space ship that can travel 25,000 miles from the Earth.

Matt Cruse is back in the phenomenal third volume in Kenneth Oppel's bestselling, award-winning series – and this time he's heading for outer space. AIRBORN and SKYBREAKER, the first two books in the series, have been among our bestselling and most-honored titles, and we think you'll find this one just as thrilling – if not more so.
