digital consumer, and much more. In today's digital age, the traditional sales funnel—marketing at the top, sales in the middle, customer service at the bottom—is no longer effective. To be successful, businesses must obsess over the questions, concerns, and problems their buyers have, and address them as honestly and as thoroughly as possible. Every day, buyers turn to search engines to ask billions of questions. Having the answers they need can attract thousands of potential buyers to your company—but only if your content strategy puts your answers at the top of those search results. It's a simple and powerful equation that produces growth and success: They Ask, You Answer. Using these principles, author Marcus Sheridan led his struggling pool company from the bleak depths of the housing crash of 2008 to become one of the largest pool installers in the United States. Discover how his proven strategy can work for your business and master the principles of inbound and content marketing that have empowered thousands of companies to achieve exceptional growth. They Ask, You Answer is a straightforward guide filled with practical tactics and insights for transforming your marketing strategy. This new edition has been fully revised and updated to reflect the evolution of content marketing and the increasing demands of today's internet-savvy buyers. New chapters explore the impact of technology, conversational marketing, the essential elements every business website should possess, the rise of video, and new stories from companies that have achieved remarkable results with They Ask, You Answer. Upon reading this book, you will know: How to build trust with buyers through content and video. How to turn your web presence into a magnet for qualified buyers. What works and what doesn't through new case studies, featuring real-world results from companies that have embraced these principles. Why you need to think of your business as a media company, instead of relying on more traditional (and ineffective) ways of advertising and marketing. How to achieve buy-in at your company and truly embrace a culture of content and video. How to transform your current customer base into loyal brand advocates for your company. They Ask, You Answer is a must-have resource for companies that want a fresh approach to marketing and sales that is proven to generate more traffic, leads, and sales.

What if everything you ever wanted isn't what you actually want? Twenty-something, suit-clad, and upwardly mobile, Joshua Fields Millburn thought he had everything anyone could ever want. Until he didn't anymore. Blindsided by the loss of his mother and his marriage in the same month, Millburn started questioning every aspect of the life he had built for himself. Then, he accidentally discovered a lifestyle known as minimalism ...and everything started to change. That was four years ago. Since, Millburn, now 32, has embraced simplicity. In the pursuit of looking for something more substantial than compulsory consumption and the broken American Dream, he jettisoned most of his material possessions, paid off loads of crippling debt, and walked away from his six-figure career. So, when everything was gone, what was left? Not a how-to book but a why-to book, Everything That Remains is the touching, surprising story of what happened when one young man decided to let go of everything and begin living more deliberately. Heartrending, uplifting, and deeply personal, this engrossing memoir is peppered with insightful (and often hilarious) interruptions by Ryan Nicodemus, Millburn 's best friend of twenty years. Don't be trapped by dogma — which is living with the results of other people's thinking. Don't let the noise of others' opinions drown out your own inner voice. And most important, have the courage to follow your heart and intuition. They somehow already know what you truly want to become.

Everything else is secondary. " — Steve Jobs, Co-founder of Apple Have you ever really taken the time to think about what you actually want out of your own life? It's not an easy task and many people don't make the effort as they probably feel it's not that important. But, if you're in a place where you're questioning your lifestyle and what you do for a living, then this should be the first step you take to identify what you really want to spend the majority of your time doing. London, the authors do what they love every single day and with this book they want to provide you with inspiration to find something you can see yourself doing in the near future. Fernando Raymond, the CEO of ClickDo Ltd., and Manuela Willbold, blogger & senior content writer at ClickDo Ltd., have created this guide with a mission to show people that as the internet marketplace grows, there are almost endless work options online for anyone with any talent and skill. With the creative support and vision of ClickDo senior web designer Kasun Sameera, this book has come to life. “ In 20 years, you will be more disappointed by what you didn ’ t do than by what you did. “ – Mark Twain, American writer We ’ ve all gone through this same experience: we went to school, got a degree and worked – but did we do what we felt passionate about? Fernando started ClickDo Ltd. because he asked himself that exact question. His vision was to lead a free life where he could work from anywhere in the world. He identified his passion for SEO

and digital marketing and set up ClickDo Ltd. with only a few clients in the early days. Kasun joined him and together they went on the journey of building many more online businesses like web hosting company SeekaHost. Manuela felt an emerging passion for writing while working as a teacher and found ClickDo while searching for WordPress Training to start her own blog. Now, she writes content and manages various ClickDo blogs. If they can do it, so can you!
