Starting From Scratch - The Vivienne Files

When you want to start from scratch, you have to effectively embody your leadership role. The first step will be to take stock of yourself. For this, you can perform a personal SWOT.

This method will help you to understand your personality and your assets more objectively: your skills, resources, qualities, shortcomings, e.g.

"One of your first problems if society were to collapse, if law and order were to evaporate, would probably be other people," says Lewis Dartnell, the author of The Knowledge: How to Rebuild Our World from Scratch. The book is intended as a "start guide and a quick start manual for rebooting civilisation" in the event of an apocalypse.
