Stay Out of the Basement is the second installment in the Goosebumps series, and while it is not as strong as the first (Welcome to Dead House) it is still a very entertaining read. It also helps establish the diversity of tales that Stine will eventually incorporate into his series, as this is the first book to deal with quasi-realistic/scientific horror rather than straight-out supernatural horror. Stay Out of the Basement | Goosebumps Wiki | Fandom

Stay Out Of The Basement is a brilliant combination of a story where Poison Ivy meets Frankenstein meets Little Sho What started out slightly slow picked up in a couple of chapters. On the surface this book is about a father who was recently been fired from his job, his obsession with making a scientific breakthrough, his descent into madness, and the two children suffering to learn their father's secrets.
