Strong Motion - Wikipedia

“Strong Motion is a roller coaster thriller . . . Franzen captures with unnerving exactness what it feels like to be young, disaffected and outside mainstream America. There is an uncannily perceptive emotional truth to this book, and it strikes with the flinty anger of an early-sixties protest song.”

"With the tighter concentration on one family, Strong Motion seems narrower than The Twenty-Seventh City" - Stephen Burn, Times Literary Supplement

"Franzen has courage. But what Strong Motion demonstrates is that courage is not enough. However laudable Franzen's intentions, and however strong his narrative gifts, he has not been able to transform them into a convincing novel.

The ambitious Strong Motion doesn't cohere as well as Franzen's later novels, but there is much to admire in this sophomore effort. It displays what are now the writer's trademarks: his serious moral purpose; his erudition; his scathing critique of materialism and the commodification of culture; his remarkable ear for dialogue and fluency with monologues; his serio-comic tone; and his masterful characterization.
