Fiela's Child McGraw-hill

Have you ever heard the phrase, "promises are made to be broken"? Unfortunately, we've all had friends, family members, and loved ones who made promises they were not able to keep. For many of us, our lives have been forever changed in those moments, and with each disappointment, we begin to feel like no one keeps their promises these days. But that's not true. While others may make promises and break them, GOD never does. What He promises, He fulfills. In this four-week study on the promises of God, we will look at how God promises to: be with you, guide you, help you, and sustain you. Never forget that God is holy and, because He is, it is not hard for Him to keep His promises. He is the ultimate Promise Keeper. God's promises are unfailing, unchanging, and true. "But those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not be faint." - Isaiah 40:31 Love God Greatly's mission is to help the world love God greatly with their lives...one Bible study, one translation, one woman at a time. The Play of Daniel Keyes' Flowers for Algernon Blurp

In 1939, hatred took root in South Africa, where the seeds of apartheid were newly sown. There a boy called Peekay was born. He spoke the wrong language—English. He was nursed by a woman of the wrong color—black. His childhood was marked by humiliation and abandonment. Yet he vowed to survive—he would become welterweight champion of the world, he would dream heroic dreams. But his dreams were nothing compared to what awaited him. For he embarked on an epic journey, where he would learn the power of words, the power to transform lives, and the mystical power that would sustain him even when it appeared that villainy would rule the world: The Power of One.
