This report provides a picture of where we stand and what we have learned so far about maternity and paternity rights across the world. It offers a rich international comparative analysis of law and practice relating to maternity protection at work in 185 countries and territories, comprising leave, cash benefits, employment protection and non-discrimination, health protection, breastfeeding arrangements at work and childcare. Expanding on previous editions, it is based on an extensive set of new legal and statistical indicators, including coverage in law and in practice of paid maternity leave as well as statutory provision of paternity and parental leave and their evolution over the last 20 years. The report also takes account of the recent economic crisis and austerity measures. It shows how well national laws and practice conform to the ILO Maternity Protection Convention, 2000 (No. 183), its accompanying Recommendation (No. 191) and the Workers with Family Responsibilities Convention, 1981 (No. 156), and offers guidance on policy design and implementation. This report shows that a majority of countries have established legislation to protect and support maternity and paternity at work, even if those provisions do not always meet the ILO standards. One of the persistent challenges is the effective implementation of legislation, to ensure that all workers are able to benefit from these essential labour rights.

This book provides a clear overview of current thinking on the teaching and learning of geography. It is an ideal companion to all students beginning a career in teaching the subject in secondary schools. The chapters are written by experienced teacher educators and bridge both theory and practice. The writers focus on the continuities, whilst setting them in the context of the changing curriculum. The book is divided into four parts. Part One examines the historical context of geography teaching. Part Two looks at issues of course planning, design, syllabuses and programmes of study. Underlying this section is the assumption that geography should not be considered in isolation from other subjects, but rather as part of a whole curriculum. Part Three concentrates on teaching and learning, and includes chapters on the use of maps, field work, IT and first hand experience within a community. The final section covers the issues associated with assessment, across the whole school age range.

While it's nice to track your mood each day to gain self-awareness, it's even nicer if you can take control and manipulate your moods. In this 190 page mood tracking journal, you will track your daily moods in a most simplified fashion, but you won't stop at tracking. You're going to take a deep dive inside of you to find out what has triggered your bad mood. Then you're going to try to find the reasons and emotions behind your trigger. This journal will prompt you to give reasons for your feelings and then to challenge your feelings with logic. Are you feeling anxious? Worried? Worthless? Shamed? Why? Once you become self-aware of your negative thought process, you're going to embark on a positive thought process by staying mindful of the reality, of the truth of the situation. And then, to drag yourself completely out of your negativity, from your negative emotions, you will commit to taking positive action. So, is this a mood tracker journal? Yes. But it's also a mood changing, life changing sort of journal!
