Sunlight on cold water (Book, 1973) [WorldCat.org]

The book 's title –a bit of sunshine in cold water—comes from a poem by Paul Eluard and in this novel refers to a brightly burning relationship that is ultimately doomed. The theme seems to be something like, be careful what you wish for and be careful what you might be willing to give up (or expect someone else to give up) in order to get it.
