Niromi de Soyza was born and raised in Sri Lanka by her conservative, middle-class educated family. The young Niromi had an 'ordinary' childhood. She was an avid reader (and still is) and excelled in everything at school except sport. In 1987, as civil war escalated, Niromi and her best friend, Ajanthi, cut short their education at a Christian Girls' College in Jaffna, and joined the milita nt Tamil Tigers against their parents' wishes.
