Tell Me It's Real starts off very lighthearted and funny but grows into an emotional, touching story with an unexpected element of tragedy and grief. Paul's family are perfect! They're hilarious, accepting and truly loving whilst Vince's father is the complete opposite. Paul and Vince's relationship is swift but no less beautiful and meaningful.

I have listened to "The Lightning-Struck Heart" by TJ Klune already and fell in love with how the author writes immediately and I am even more so after listening to "Tell me it's real". You feel like you really know the characters and you wish you could be their friends or even their neighbours :D I can only highly recommend this audio book!

Tell Me It's Real is a cute, hilarious, heartwarming story. Paul and Vince are adorable and seeing the story come to life in picture form was really fun. However, I do definitely recommend reading the original book before this one. This is a toned down, shortened version of the original story.
