Date your letter. Note the date at the top of your letter. Because this is an informal letter (as opposed to a business letter) you may write it out in longhand, use abbreviations for the months, or write the date numerically in month/day/year format. For example, you may write "October 24, 2017," "Oct. 24, 2017," or "10/24/17."

Guidelines to Follow Students can write anything they want in the "thank you letter" as long as it's relevant to the scholarship or to their academical studies. However, there are some guidelines that students should always follow if they want to make sure that their letter stands out from the rest. Don't make any grammatical errors;
