about a blind French
girl and a German
boy whose paths
collide in occupied France as both try to survive the
devastation of World War II. Marie-Laure
lives with her father in Paris near the

Museum of Natural History where he works as the master of
its thousands of locks.
When she is six,
Marie-Laure goes
blind and her father
builds a perfect
miniature of their neighborhood so she can memorize it by
touch and navigate
her way home. When she is twelve, the Nazis occupy Paris,
and father and
daughter flee to the walled citadel of Saint-Malo, where Marie-
Laure's reclusive
great uncle lives in a
tall house by the sea.
With them they carry
what might be the museum's most valuable and dangerous jewel. In a mining town in Germany, the orphan Werner grows up with
his younger sister,
enchanted by a crude
radio they find.

Werner becomes an expert at building and fixing these crucial
new instruments, a talent that wins him a place at a brutal
academy for Hitler Youth, then a special assignment to track
the Resistance. More and more aware of the human cost of his intelligence, Werner travels through the heart of the war and,
finally, into Saint-Malo, where his story
and Marie-Laure's
converge. Doerr's
"stunning sense of physical detail and
gorgeous metaphors" (San Francisco Chronicle) are dazzling. Deftly
interweaving the lives of Marie-Laure and Werner, he
illuminates the ways,
against all odds,
people try to be good to one another. Ten years in the writing,

All the Light We Cannot See is a magnificent, deeply moving novel from a writer "whose sentences never fail to thrill" (Los Angeles Times).
